

Dade County Announces Single Polling Location for July Democratic Runoff

Posted on July 11, 2025 by Carey Fauscett-Anderson

TRENTON, GA. (July 2, 2025) — Due to historically low voter turnout in the last election cycle, Dade County will open only one polling location for the upcoming Democratic runoff election scheduled for Tuesday, July 15, 2025.

Dade County has a total of 15,048 registered voters. However, during the most recent election, only 265 ballots were cast, with just 121 of those voting Democratic. This represents a turnout of less than 1% among registered Democratic voters. According to O.C.G.A. § 21-2-270 section 3b this means that “only one polling place shall be required to be open in the county at the run-off primary”.

The upcoming runoff is for the Public Service Commission – District 3 seat, featuring Democratic candidates Peter Hubbard and Keisha Sean Waites. In response to anticipated turnout and to best allocate resources, all voting for this runoff will take place at the Trenton Precinct in the Dade County Administration Building, located at 71 Case Avenue, Trenton, GA.

Early voting will be available at the same location from Monday, July 7 through Friday, July 11. Polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

On Election Day, Tuesday, July 15, polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Voters are encouraged to participate and take advantage of early voting opportunities.
