TRENTON, Ga. (Sept. 5, 2025) — During its September meeting, the Dade County Commission recognized the retirement of Roy Morgan, who faithfully served the community for many years at the county's transfer station.

Chairman Don Townsend expressed his appreciation for Morgan's commitment, noting his dedication to working many Saturdays over the years. "We want to thank him for his service," Townsend said.

With Morgan's retirement, the Commission announced that Public Works Director Billy Massengale is seeking to fill the transfer station position. Applications are available on the county's official website at www.dadecounty-ga.gov.

The Commission extended its gratitude to Roy Morgan for his years of service and encouraged interested applicants to consider joining the county's public works team.
