

Commissioner Bradford Reports on Transfer Station Operations and Community Updates

Posted on November 14, 2025 by Carey Fauscett-Anderson

TRENTON, Ga. (Nov. 6, 2025) — Commissioner Melissa Bradford provided updates on transfer station operations, recycling efforts and community activities during the November regular meeting of the Dade County Board of Commissioners.

Commissioner Bradford reported that she has requested a five-year comparison of waste volume at the county transfer station and is still awaiting the complete data. She noted ongoing staffing shortages and turnover at the facility but commended employees for maintaining operations under challenging circumstances. She also reiterated her continued interest in expanding recycling options, including glass recycling, though efforts to identify a vendor have not yet been successful.

She also announced upcoming holiday operating hours for the Transfer Station, noting the following schedule:

- Thursday, Nov. 27 — Closed for Thanksgiving Day
- Friday, Nov. 28 — Open
- Wednesday, Dec. 24 — Closing at noon
- Thursday, Dec. 25 — Closed for Christmas Day
- Friday, Dec. 26 — Open
- Thursday, Jan. 1, 2026 — Closed for New Year's Day
- Friday, Jan. 2, 2026 — Open

Commissioner Bradford shared that she has requested an updated job description for Code Enforcement Officer Stacy Stevens. The revised description is intended to clarify duties and assist with addressing public questions regarding enforcement procedures and responsibilities.

In community updates, Commissioner Bradford encouraged residents to support student athletes as the fall sports season transitions into winter activities. She also recognized the Dade County High School softball team for its recent achievement in reaching the state Final Four.

The Board of Commissioners will continue receiving operational and community updates as the county works to address staffing, recycling and public service needs.
